

DEDICATION

We, the classes of 1940, dedicate our annual to Miss Agnes Kokanour, who has for years been faculty adviser to the staff of "Dias Cardinales." Through her untiring perseverance, her kindly guidance, and her affable spirit she has assisted us in keeping a permanent record of our high school activities.

THEME

The color of our campus life is accentuated in the pageantry of our athletics, in the youthful gaiety of our school dances, in the brilliant atmosphere of our dramatic productions, and in the beauty and rhythm of our art and music departments. Hence, Campus Life with all its youth and gaiety, beauty and color, has been chosen as the ruling motif, the theme, of this 1940 edition of "Dias Cardinales."

RADUATING CLASSES OF 1940:

It is a matter of great cheer to readers of history to observe that the successors of the wicked King Leopold of Africa have changed from the policies of this cruel and selfish King and are working more and more closely toward the values of David Livingstone who died to save the people of Africa from ignorance and persecution.

Excepting geographic and other changes beyond the strength of man to control, the important events of this world are always the products of the actions of the people either cooperatively or individually. If this is true, then the standards of the world reflect the standards of men.

At this time there are many vast problems calling for the cooperative action of people with a high standard of values. The best leadership in solving these problems will be given by those young men and women who have learned early in youth to harness their vital forces to significant purposes, to throw off inhibitions and habits that hinder their personalities from growing to their full strength.

Each artisan can lay relatively few bricks in the vast building of the world but the decisive attitude of millions in any country and the combined efforts of many people will affect the future.

You students who are graduating from Hoover High School have built the brick and mortar of your personalities into Hoover High School and now it will be my privilege to see you go out into the world and build your part into the future of this rapidly changing world.

Sincerely,

A MESSAGE TO SENIOR A'S

One of the most attractive qualities in high school boys and girls is their enthusiasm. It is an infectious quality which arouses a like zeal in others whom they contact. It is one of the basic qualities for success in any kind of work.

During your three years in Hoover High School, individually and as a group, you have possessed this enthusiasm in a high degree. My wish for you upon graduation is that you may continue to possess and to exercise this same quality of enthusiasm always.

Most sincerely yours,

Virginia W. Kyes

A MESSAGE TO GRADUATES

It has been said, "You can't expect your ship to come in unless you have sent one out." You have been building your ships for the past few years and some of you are ready to send yours out on their maiden voyages. Others of you are going on to the various schools to complete your ships, to make them more seaworthy, or to build in auxiliary power units.

When your ships are completed they will go out many times, and I hope that on each return they will be ladened with much success and happiness.

January Class

GRADUATION in January climaxed the list of varied activities of this class that planned many successful affairs under the leadership of George Forbes, president; Thomas Sarantos, vice president; Caroline Dethloff, secretary-treasurer, and the eighteen members of the cabinet.

The social hour, held weekly in the girls' gym, high-lighted the entire term. ''Charley's Aunt,'' the class play, ran for three successful nights, November 2, 3, and 4; with Herbert Seltzer furnishing the comedy in his impersonation of the famous aunt.

On November 10 the A. S. B. Ball was held for the first time in our new boys' gym. Alumni were welcomed home the following week on November 17 with a big parade up El Cajon Boulevard and a rally at the stadium. The "big" game with San Diego High School was played the next day with a "win-lose rally" afterward.

January 17 found the Senior A's "ditching" to Pine Valley where they danced, hiked, went horseback riding, and played baseball, volleyball, and football. All participated with great zest in the enjoyment of the barbecued beef.

Senior A edition of the Cardinal was published January 26 under the editorship of Dick Clark. On Sunday, January 28, the seniors attended the impressive vespers service at the First Congregational Church. Dr. Roy Campbell gave the address.

One of the outstanding events was the Senior A Prom. On January 29 at the Hotel del Coronado Frank Losey's orchestra played for the Winter Wonderland. Seniors were given red suede "bids" bearing the Cardinal seal. The ball was ended with a grand march and the singing of the class song, which was written by Bill and Dorothy Vahle.

The next day, Tower Day, the seniors were presented with awards; they went into the tower for the first time and signed their names in the registration book.

On January 31 came the finale, the Senior A Commencement. Lotus Graham, Ruth Rovech, and Larry Devlin spoke on the panel of "The American Way of Life." The diplomas were given, and the students were graduated, thus completing their high school career.

June Class

UR June, 1940, Senior class, the largest in the history of the school, has enjoyed a very successful final semester at Hoover with Forrest Brown capably serving as president, and Val Jean Robbins and Gerry Clark as vice president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

The first dancing class, welcomed by a large turnout, took place in the Girls' Gym on March 6. The next big event on the calendar was the Senior A Play, "The Thirteenth Chair," which played to five full houses at Roosevelt auditorium from March 12 to 16. This production set a school record and over a thousand dollars worth of tickets were sold.

Many of the seniors danced to the music of Chuck Rotzler's orchestra at the Military Ball which was given on April 19. "Quality Street," the Drama Class production, was enthusiastically attended by the student body on April 26. On May I, the halls were colorful with the coeds wearing gay print dresses—the occasion being Cardinal Coed Day.

The latter part of May saw the senior activities really start in earnest. At the Ditch Day in Pine Valley the students had one of the best times in their entire high school career. Planned by cabinet member Kenneth Vance, the activities on that day were hiking, riding, baseball, swimming, volleyball, and dancing.

One of the most impressive vesper services was planned by Lois Gordy, and held on June 9 at the First Presbyterian Church, with Rev. Coyle conducting the services. The beauty of the occasion was appreciated by all the seniors.

June 4 was the date for the Senior A Ball, which was arranged by Dave Price. The setting for this event was beautiful Hotel del Coronado. On Tuesday the seniors attended Tower Day ceremonies. After presentation of awards they climbed to the tower to sign the roster.

Barbara Woodhouse and Stephen Farr were responsible for the successful commencement exercises. After hearing three timely and impressive speeches by members of the class, the seniors received their long-awaited diplomas and filed out of the Ford Bowl. To complete the exciting day, most of the class attended the "Farewell Frolic" at the Collegiate Club.

Thus, ended the activities of our 1940 graduating class.

COME! STAND TOGETHER!

Our Alma Mater,
We proclaim your honor now.
May your glory keep on rising,
May each year new victory bring.
As our parting days draw near,
We pledge our hearts to thee.
Your inspiring tower will symbolize
Our faith sincere with binding ties.

Chorus

Come! Stand together
And sing a song of praise to thee.
Our days spent together
Will always linger in our mem'ry;
And now to you dear old Hoover,
We extend our last goodbye.
Your banners red and white
Will be a welcome sight
Rising o'er the field, Hoover High.

Fourth row: Coach Walker, Lipshitz, Frisk, Doane, Donnan, Shaffer, Sarantos, Foote, Workman, Christensen, Coach Perry.

Football

HE football team of 1939 did not have the necessary luck that goes to make a winning season. The six points jinx was with us in most of our games and was one factor that kept us out of a top position in the league. The fact that Tom Sarantos, fullback, Tom Harper, quarterback, and Jim Frisk, center, were picked on the All-League Team is proof that the team was outstanding in certain positions. Reggie Ferguson received honorable mention and was named captain of the 1939 squad.

These juniors received letters for the first time: Herbert Foote, Jim Frisk, Bob Barkley, Ross Workman, Charles Doane, John Attig, John Doria.

The following seniors have earned a letter for the first time because of outstanding ability or because of their efforts for three years of service: Valjean Robbins, Henry Mueller, George Peck, Newton Phillips, Bill Kostakos, Charles Solomon, Robert Barta, Harold Shaffer, John Alford, Bow Smith, Joe Lipshitz, and Jim Moore. Tom Fitzgerald, Orion Todd, John O'Connell, Jack Hudson, and Bob Weston received managers' letters. Jack Dort was the only sophomore to earn a letter.

Varsity Basketball

THE first year of basketball in our new gymnasium was one that saw many close games and several heart-breaking defeats. Both San Diego and Long Beach high varsity teams defeated the Hoover quintet in Coast League play. In an extensive schedule outside of league games the Cardinals won from Compton, Bay League champions, and from our old rivals from Alhambra. The varsity also took part in the Huntington Beach and Chino Invitational Basketball Tournaments.

Letter winners who have finished their eligibility are John Babick, Rupert Crosthwaite, Bob Gremmett, Percy Hussong, Roy Muelchi, and Warren Wallace. With four returning lettermen, Captain McKeever, Fred Moy, Tom Iddings, and Glen Schneider, as a nucleus, plus some improving reserves and strong Bees, a more successful 1940-41 season is anticipated.

The new gymnasium with the addition of permanent bleachers and an unique clock greatly aided the interest in basketball in the school. Each year should see increased benefits from these assets.

"B" Basketball

T is difficult to imagine that a team could have as much hard luck as the Hoover B squad did this year. In the four league games two were lost to San Diego by two points and two to Long Beach by one point. Several leading metropolitan League B teams were beaten by one-sided scores. The team, which was made up of an entirely new squad after Rupert Crosthwaite was shifted to the Varsity, had plenty of ability but lacked the experience necessary for a more successful season.

The lettermen, most of whom will be eligible for the varsity next year, were Captain Frank Huennekens, Clifford Kickbush, Lee Diehl, Alex French, Marvin Hamlet, Willie Steele, Jack Kaiser, Arnold Saul, Tom Phelps, Jack Hawkes, and Ray Boone. Their spirit was fine both in victory and defeat. One or two of the letter winners will be Bees again next winter, and, with some of the reserves and members of the C team, will form a new team that will have more experience and confidence.

Track

THE 1940 track team was very well balanced with several outstanding performers in the squad of 130 boys. There were eight returning lettermen who formed the nucleus of the team. They had an extensive schedule planned, and they started the season right by defeating the San Diego State College freshmen, the Escondido and Pt. Loma tracksters, and outscored San Diego High School in the Coast League Relays.

Last year's Varsity award winners who were eligible again were: George Brown, new school shotput record breaker; Rodney Cole, diminutive Southern California B champion and Hoover record holder in the pole vault; Charles Blackburn, Jim Morgan, and Bob Barkley, capable sprinters; Frank Huennekens, Southern California C 660 champion; Forrest Brown, discus thrower; and Bill Kostakos, two-year veteran in the jumps.

The team successfully defended their Coast League B championship and had a very interesting Varsity dual meet season.

Baseball

PROBABLY one of the best balanced baseball teams ever to carry the Red and White of Hoover High." That is the concensus of opinion of those baseball critics who have watched the team work during the season. The nucleus of the squad has been the seven lettermen from the 1939 squad, Douglas Donnan, Jim Moore, Fred Matson, Fred Rapp, Edward Means, seniors; Arthur Spahr and Jim Belasco, juniors. To this group several juniors from last year's junior varsity and a few very fine sophomores made a team that has been hard to beat.

Early in the year the boys elected Douglas Donnan and Jim Moore to lead them as co-captains, and their spirit and enthusiasm made them excellent leaders. Never during the season has there been dissension on the squad. The season itself has been one of the longest in Hoover's history. A big task had to be faced in making the team into a strong league contender, so the boys began their playing and practicing even before the end of the first semester. Before the abbreviated league schedule had ever started, the team had played twenty games with but a single defeat, a wonderful record for any team. That defeat came at the hands of Pomona High in the Pomona Tournament, but was atoned for a week later when the Cards defeated a strong Covina team twice in a doubleheader right after Covina had decisively defeated Pomona. Hoover's outstanding wins included the U. S. Marines, State College varsity, the U. S. S. Melville, Escondido twice, and Covina twice.

Tennis

THESE eleven students comprised the strongest tennis team Hoover has ever had. They made an excellent showing this year in matches with Coast League teams as well as with local high schools. Outstanding among the players was Arnold Saul who won the school tournament, and reached the finals of the Ink Tournament. Winners of letters this year were: Arnold Saul, Fred Moy, Richard Collier, Emery Hurd, Marion Oates, George Holland, Bob Lyness, Eddie Brown, Ernest Summers, Warren Hall, and Howard Smith.

THE twelve members of the Hoover Golf Club have been sponsored this year, as before, by Mr. Lambert. The club is permitted to use the Emerald Hills Golf Course free of charge, and also receives free instruction from golf pro, Bob Simpson. Many outstandingly good golfers have been developed, the top men this year being George Thompson, Al Hart, and John Rising. A regular coast league schedule is followed by the group.

Girls' Sports

WITH a new gym that provided extra facilities, the participation in girls' sports far exceeded that of former years. Not only was the volume increased, but also the variety of sports offered as shown by the addition of such activities as badminton, table tennis, two-court basketball, corrective gymnasium, folk-dancing, and clog and character dancing.

Badminton immediately proved popular with Hoover girls and the enthusiasts formed a Badminton Club. The courts are also open to the students during classes and to the faculty after school. The dancing classes which are elective are so popular that all those interested cannot be accommodated.

Not only Hoover girls, but also girls from San Diego, Point Loma, and La Jolla enjoyed the opportunities of our gym, through a playday sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Association. The G. A. A. was also responsible for the making of a permanent record of girls' sports at Hoover in the form of a movie, "Cardinal Coeds at Play."

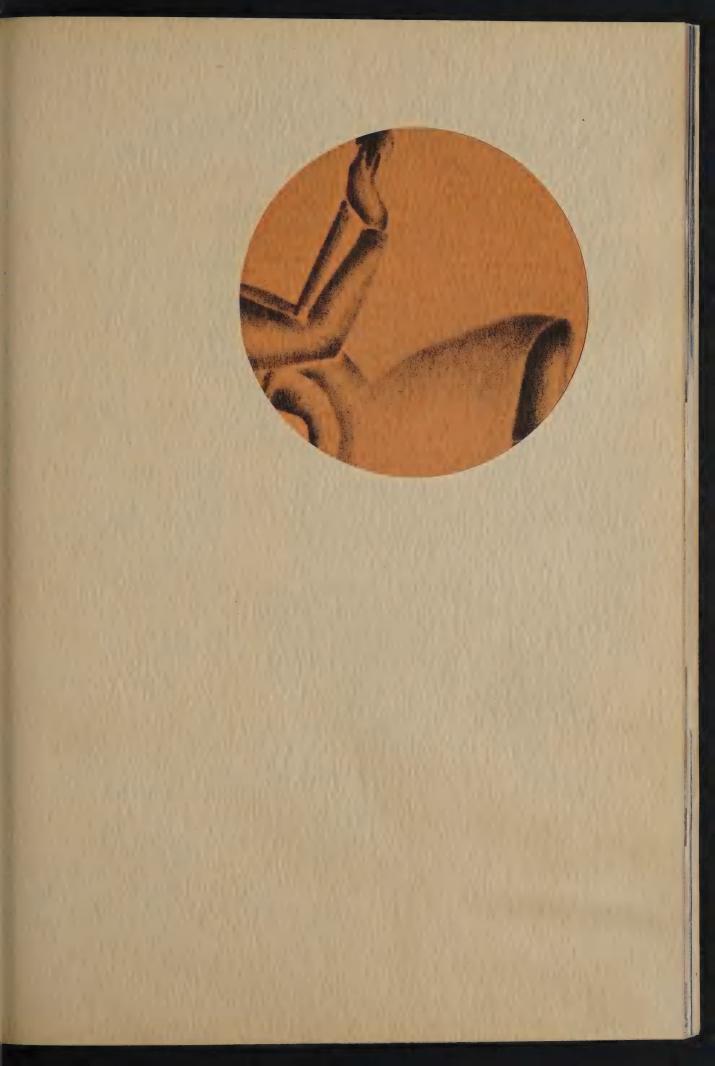

The tennis class this year has been very popular and has produced more good players than ever before. Outstanding was Shirley Rorick, who won the school tournament. Twenty girls showed their prowess in horseback riding through membership in the ever popular riding class.

This year as always the tumbling team has been one of Hoover's main attractions at football games.

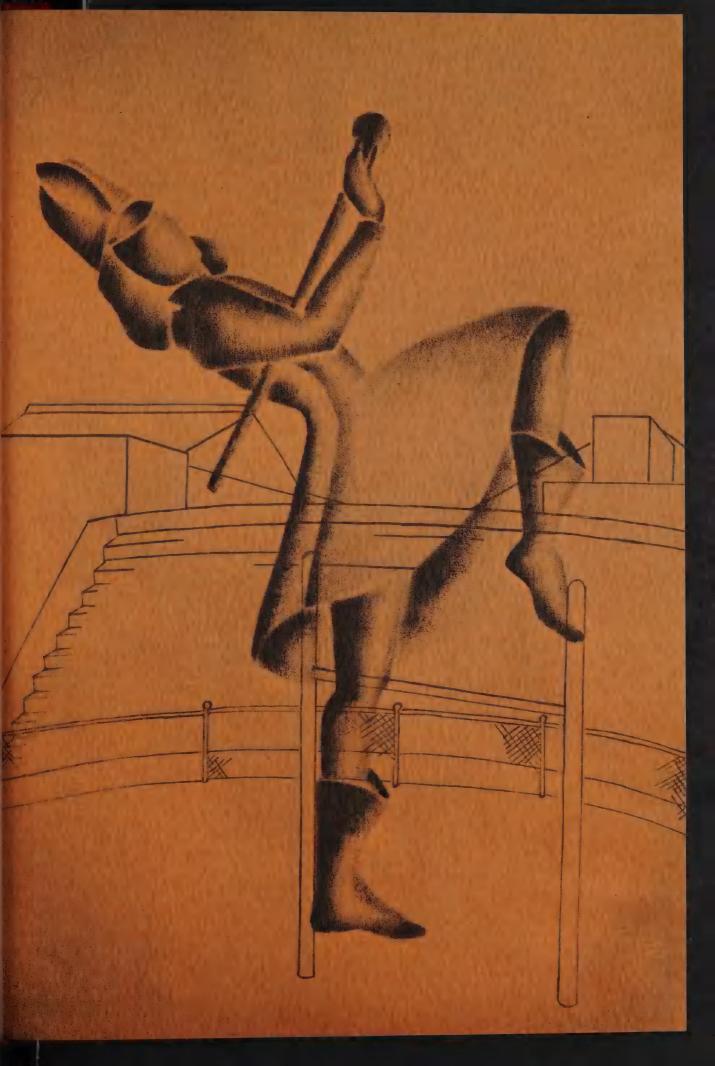

It is hoped by the Physical Education Department that the interest in girls' sports will be maintained and that they will continue as one of Hoover's main activities.

January Class Play

THE mid-year class of 1940 gave a revival of the favorite comedy, "Charley's Aunt," by Brandon Thomas. Three productions were given at the Roosevelt Auditorium on November 2, 3, and 4. Iris Zaun as Production Manager and Neil Livesay as Stage Manager headed the capable student staff.

"Charley's Aunt—from Brazil—where the nuts come from," played by Herbert Seltzer, Lord Fancourt Babberley in disguise, took the honors in the comedy role. With Herbie impersonating the famous aunt and the real aunt coming unexpectedly from Brazil, the fun begins and continues throughout the entire three acts. The following seniors added to the fun of the comedy with the fine portrayals of their individual characters: Marechal Duncan as Charles Wykeham; David Phair as Jack Chesney; Alice Kyle, Amy Spettigue; Ruth Rovech, Kitty Verdun; Elvin Ress, Brasset; Mark Jackson, Colonel Sir Francis Chesney; Wally Hanna, Farmer; Jean Phibbs, Donna Lucia D'Alvadorez; Elizabeth Elliot, Ela Delahay; and Dorothea Salyers as Maud.

The play was produced and directed by J. Milford Ellison.

June Class Play

T'S murder at a seance, and you're invited!" This was the theme of the June class play, "The Thirteenth Chair," a mystery drama by Bayard Veiller. A spiritualistic medium, Madame Rosalie La Grange, played by Rita Larkin, is called to entertain the guests with a seance. In her trance she is about to divulge the name of the murderer of a friend when a scream of anguish is heard; the lights go on, and Mr. Wales is found murdered. Inspector Donahue, played by Clarence Hagendorff, conducts the investigation that results in solving the mystery and apprehending the murderer.

Outstanding in his portrayal of the murderer, Philip Mason, was Valjean Robbins. Others in the cast were: Marna Fleming as Helen O'Neil; Kenneth Vance as Will Crosby; Alfredda Steppler as Mrs. Crosby; Sam Erwine, Roscoe Crosby; Warren Chambers and Herman Rossoll, Edward Wales; Gladys Hauk, Mary Eastwood; Barbara Desrosiers, Helen Trent; Annette Lux, Grace Standish; Newton Phillips, Braddish Trent; Eugene Witt, Howard Standish; Gretta Driver, Elizabeth Erskine; Anthony De Luce, Pollock; Maurice Wilson, Sergeant Dunn; Earle Brown, Doolan; and Margie Hurst, as understudy, played the part of Madame La Grange one night.

George Peck was student production manager, and J. Milford Ellison staged and produced the play.

California Scholarship Federation

THE students most outstanding in scholarship at Hoover comprise the California Scholarship Federation. In order to become a member a student must have three A's and one B in solids, and all recommended grades in citizenship. This organization had as the main social event the annual ditch day which this year was held at Pacific Beach.

Serving as officers for the fall semester were: Winifred Webb, president; Pat Calland, vice president; Paul Silva, secretary; and Richard McCary, treasurer. During the spring semester the officers were: Tom Taber, president; Jerry Anderson, vice president; Beverly McCreery, secretary; and Metta Taber, treasurer.

THE A Cappella Choir, directed by Myron B. Green, an advanced vocal group, is a nationally known organization. Between September, 1939, and February, 1940, the group presented three main concerts, for the Principals' and Supervisors' Club, for Phi Delta Kappa, an honoray teachers' association, and for the Vesper services of the graduating class.

The choir opened the second semester with an enrollment of seventy-seven members. The main concert of the season was presented in Los Angeles on April 3 at the Biltmore Hotel. The occasion was the National Music Educators' Biennial Convention, our choir being one of three in the United States invited to sing. The group attained the great privilege by much hard work and sacrifice. The runds to cover the expenses of this trip were partially raised by a fenefit concert which was presented March 29.

The Casa de Manana at La Jolla was the setting for another concert by the choir on May 19. Two talented Hoover musicians, Nelda Smith, violinist, and Betty Bunch, pianist, were soloists on the program.

The officers of the A Cappella Choir were:

Senior Girls' Glee

THE Senior Girls' Glee Club, under the directorship of Myron B. Green, has been an active group this year. They sang several times for the Parent-Teachers Association, which has always proved to be a very appreciative audience. They participated in the February graduation exercises by combining with the Boys' Glee Clubs to sing the processional for the graduates. Each year during the Christmas holidays the A Cappella Choir and the Glee Clubs visit the County Hospital, the Vauclain Home, the Naval Hospital, the Plaza, and the Naval and Marine Bases. After the caroling they return to the school where a party is held in the Girls' Gym.

Under Student Director Eunice Loflin the Glee Club was featured at the vespers held at the First Presbyterian Church, June 9.

Intermediate Girls' Glee

N account of the large number of singers in the music department, this new group, the Intermediate Girls' Glee, has been formed. The members were chosen at a special tryout and were required to have had musical experience. At these tryouts 86 girls were chosen and, under the direction of Mrs. Madeleine W. Hofmann, organized for the first time this spring semester.

The officers that the girls selected were: Virginia Graham, president; Susanna Kostakos, vice president; Sarah Wagner, secretary; Dorothy Nicholson, treasurer; and Ruth Clinger and Betty Marie Hoopes, librarians.

This glee meets daily in the Little Theater and works in three and four-part music. Weekly programs are planned on Fridays. The highlight of the social program was a combined music department beach party.

This group has proved very successful, and it is hoped that the Intermediate Girls' Glee will remain as a permanent section of the music department.

FOR the fourth year the Junior Girls' Glee has been in existence to give Hoover girls an opportunity to gain musical experience. They do work in three part music, the result of which was displayed at the annual Christmas music assembly.

The eighty-four girls in the spring semester elected Faith Betts as their president; Nan Cox, vice president; Virginia Perry, secretary; and Pauline Palmer, treasurer. In the fall semester officers were: president, Helen Brown; vice president, Lois Preston; and secretary-treasurer, Joanne Sutter.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Madeleine W. Hofmann, the group had programs twice monthly. The program chairman was Marsha Skinner.

This group has become more popular with the students with each succeeding year of its existence.

Senior Boys' Glee

THE Senior Boys' Glee Club has a membership of sixty. Under the direction of Myron Green, these picked singers have performed at numerous places during the fall of 1939 and the spring of 1940. Appearances included singing before the Herbert Hoover P.-T. A., the Fairmount Baptist Church, also combining with the Senior Girls' Glee Club to sing for graduation exercises for the class of February, 1940.

Probably the biggest event of the year comes around Christmas, when all the musical organizations have their annual Christmas Caroling Party. The group makes the rounds of the various hospitals and Homes, coming back to the school for a party afterwards.

Before becoming eligible for acceptance into the Senior Glee, a boy must have had at least one semester of group singing and his citizenship marks must be strictly first class.

The boys elect officers and in many ways maintain their own discipline. Student leaders assist Mr. Green, and, in instances, direct the Club in public appearances. The group has maintained a high record of good citizenship and loyalty to the school in all their group activities.

Band

OOVER'S colorful band has provided entertainment for the students throughout the year at the sports events and rallies. They played for all the home football games and took the trip to Alhambra to cheer our gridironers. They played in the All City Festival on May 19 in the Ford Bowl. The program was climaxed by the presentation of their own concert in the latter part of the semester.

This group has sixty members. Principals of the various sections are: Bob Wilson, Trumpet Section; Herman Rossoll, Horn Section; Ross Workman, Bass; Herbert Hotchkiss, Trombone; Harold Weaver, Drum; Warren Hastings, Clarinet; and Ralph Dickinson, Saxophone.

The band is instructed by Frank T. Close.

Orchestra

THE popular Hoover Orchestra throughout the year played for occasions at which a finer type of music is desired. Both the January and June commencement programs were highlighted by the orchestra. On April 28 this organization appeared in the Festival at the Russ Auditorium. During May they participated in an All City Orchestra, and on May 12 a Hoover Orchestral Concert was presented.

Nelda Smith was Concert Mistress, and the principals of the various sections were: Nick Stamatopolous, second violin; Leonard Johnson, viola; Metta Taber, 'cello; Ruth Huebner, bass; Arthur Jensen, clarinet; Katherine Wilson, oboe; Yvonne Weary, flute; James Lyness, horn; and Richard Berman, trumpet.

The orchestra was directed by Frank T. Close.

Cardinal Four

THE most active musical group at Hoover is the Cardinal Four. The members are Warren Sund, Tom Fitzgerald, Mark Andrews, Stanley Daniel, Don Brunton, Les Overton, Ed Davidson, Dick Day, Jack Hudson, and the pianist, Betty Bunch. Sponsored by Myron B. Green, this group has represented the school in programs over the radio and at churches, in social groups, and at businessmen's and women's clubs.

THE Junior Boys' Glee Club is composed of about sixty members who are directed by Mr. Green. Here the boys are taught the fundamentals of part singing and general chorus work. The voices are carefully watched for any development or change in voice range. From this group many of the boys are chosen for the Senior Glee Club or the A Cappella Choir.

A TERTULIA," under the sponsorship of Mrs. Geiger, has been one of our most active organizations this year. The group has taken excursions to Marston Museum and Ramona's Marriage Place, as well as enjoying Mexican dinners and having a beach party. The club participated in the Pan-American Day celebration at Hoover. Yetta Jean Gershon was leader of the group in the fall, and Jean Lee Johnson has been president during the spring semester.

THE Latin Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Marie Baird, has completed another successful year. The club was organized to create more interest in Latin. Besides the regular Tuesday meetings at school, the group occasionally has social evenings. In the fall semester the officers were Kathleen Baker, president; Betty Erro, vice president; Betty Whitaker, secretary; and Shirley Schmetzer, treasurer. The officers for the spring semester were Betty Erro, president; Dorothy Gillette, vice president; Peggy Ringry, secretary; and Betty Mantor, treasurer.

Girl Reserves

"TO BE, rather than to do; to keep our eyes ever turned towards the Master of all Life, who spent His years in being." This is the purpose of the Girl Reserves, which is an organization of the Y. W. C. A.

The code reads: "I Will Try

To face life squarely and To find and give the best.

I Will Strive to Be:

G racious in Manner
I mpartial in Judgment

Among the many varied activities of the organization this year have been a "Pa, Ma, and Me" banquet, extra dinners, horseback rides, and the annual dance, which was this year called the "Crystal Ball." Officers were:

Fall		Spring
Dorthea Salyers	President	Barbara Woodhouse

Hi-Y Club

OOVER'S HI-Y has enjoyed one of its most successful and active years. The program was started with the donation of the trophy given to the outstanding float in the Homecoming Parade. They next sponsored a cord and print dance in the House of Hospitality in December. Highlighting the spring semester was a dance given with the Cardinal Coeds.

The purpose of the Hi-Y as stated in their pledge is "To create, maintain, and extend through the school and community high standards of Christian character." With this as their goal, under the sponsorship of Mr. James Meeuwenberg and the leadership of their officers, the club has been ready to assist in school projects such as the delivery of food baskets at Thanksgiving and Christmas, and to sponsor social activities for the school and community. They aim to promote a training for leadership, a better understanding of good sportsmanship, a wholesome social life, a sense of "belonging," educational growth through speakers, an appreciation for companionship, and an understanding of the satisfaction of serving others.

To maintain the high standards of service to the school, this organization usually has several of its members on the board of commissioners. Many are athletic and achieve distinction in football, basketball, baseball, and track. This year leading the organization as officers in the fall semester were: George Forbes, president; Tom Harper, vice president; Bill Peterson, secretary; and Bill Jacobs, treasurer. In the spring the officers were: Tom Harper, president; John Jones, vice president; Charles Blackburn, secretary; and Frank Huennekens, treasurer.

Quill and Scroll

THE Melville Slater Chapter of the Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society for high school journalists, is sponsored by the journalism department. The organization, formerly advised by Mrs. Cynthia Copeland, is now under the leadership of Miss Delight Smith.

To be recommended for membership students must have done outstanding journalistic work and maintained high scholastic records. Dick Clark and Rita Larkin, as presidents, have capably headed the society this year.

THE staff of the Cardinal this year with Dick Clark as fall semester editor-in-chief and Dorothy Lundy as the editor in the spring semester, has tried to make our school publication the best we have ever had. Climaxing their efforts was the winning of the National Press Association, First Class Honor Rating.

In the first semester the faculty adviser was Mrs. Cynthia Copeland, and the second semester, Miss Delight Smith. Victor F. Hoffert was in charge of the printing; Stewart Wicklin, advertising; and Lawrence E. Hollingsworth, financial adviser.

TO increase their knowledge in the field of chemistry many of our students organized into the Chemistry Club. To qualify for membership a student must present a science demonstration or a report in the scientific field. The group has been on excursions to such places as the salt works, the Gas and Electric Company, and the Olive Factory. There have also been some pleasurable social meetings. The members may be recognized by their little bronze pins. Mrs. Lois Sorkness, the sponsor, assisted by the Club, has succeeded in making chemistry a fascinating hobby.

BECAUSE Saint Thomas Aquinas is the patron saint of Catholic scholarship, he was chosen as the inspiration and guide of the Aquinas Club at Hoover. The group, which is essentially a social club stressing spiritual development, is sponsored by Mrs. Withers and Mrs. Johnson of the P.T.A., Miss Urbani of the faculty, and Father Charles Forsythe, O.S.B., Chaplain.

THE Debate Club, known as the Hoover Senators, is composed of the students who represent Hoover in all interscholastic speaking tournaments. The fall semester was successfully opened by their winning at the State College Debate Tournament, and their work has been continued throughout 1939-40 with the Toastmasters' extemporary contest, the Redlands University and the County debate tournaments, also the oratorical contests. Along with this a varied social program of banquets and mountain parties has kept the Senators one of the busiest groups in the school.

THE students who come to third period classes with pep talks and tickets to sell comprise the Ballyhoo Club. The membership is limited and admission is gained through tryouts. The club is led by Mrs. Lois Sorkness, sponsor, and Marjorie Schwartz and Orien Todd, presidents for the spring and fall semesters.

UTSTANDING at football games this year were those students in red and white who kept the enthusiasm of the rooting section at a high pitch throughout the season. The song leaders, Glenna Finch, Phyllis Douthit, and Lucille Douthit, with their tricky routines led the Cardinal singing; and the yell leaders, Johnny Rodgers, Bud Isham, and Rupert Crosthwaite, led the Hoover section in their cheers. These six students helped create the color that keeps football games so popular.

Camera Club

REORGANIZING for the 1939-40 season the Hoover Camera Club found many opportunities for school service. Although handicapped by the absence of a suitable dark-room and equipment, the Club was able to enjoy several fine outings and several of its members won recognition in the county-wide Photographic Salon. Under the sponsorship of Mr. McKenney and the able leadership of President Joe Busco, the club—the membership of which is nearly thirty—hopes to turn out some fine work next year. The promise of a dark-room should stimulate new interest in the future.

Scribblers

N the spring of 1939 a group of students organized themselves into a literary writing club and called it The Scribblers. Since then they have tried to encourage interest in creative writing at Hoover. This year the club published the first semi-annual Scribblers' Magazine in which a permanent record is to be kept of Hoover students' best literary attempts. The sponsor is Miss Margaret B. Heaton, and the club presidents were Dorothy Lundy and Dick McCary.

Bible Club

THE Hoover Bible Club was organized to give our students an opportunity to study the greatest book of all, the Bible. Once a month outside speakers of note are asked to lead group discussions, but the order of procedure is one of actual study of the Scriptures.

The desire of the club, which is strictly undenominational, is to let students discover for themselves the beauty and spiritual significance of the Bible. All students, regardless of doctrinal belief, are invited to attend.

Skating Club

OOVER'S newest organization, The Gay Blades, has been received with a great deal of enthusiasm by students and faculty members alike. Our school principal, Mr. Floyd Johnson, has been one of the club's most ardent supporters since its inception. Special bi-monthly ice-skating sessions are held for club members at Glacier Gardens. The organization's clever emblem, a jaunty little Cardinal on ice skates, was designed by Don Forsythe. These emblems are worn on ice-white sweaters. The club already has a membership totalling almost 200 students. Beginners as well as experienced skaters are urged to join the Gay Blades, sponsored by Mrs. Barbara Prescott and Coach John Perry. Hoover is at present the only high school in San Diego which holds regular sessions at the rink.

The club's officers are Shirley Thurnell, president; Jim Woods, secretary-treasurer; and Robley Baskerville, publicity manager.

Drama Club

N the fall of 1939 a group of students interested in furthering dramatic activities at Hoover organized themselves into the Drama Club. A constitution was drawn up, and the membership was limited to fifteen boys and fifteen girls. At special tryouts those with the most ability were selected to become members of the club.

To learn more about production activities and the theater in general, these thespians made studies of pantomime and make-up. One-act plays were presented in the drama department one-act-play tournament in the latter part of May which they sponsored. Many of the members took part in other dramatic activities at Hoover, such as the Senior A plays, rallies, drama department plays, programs at junior high schools, and the declamation contest at Redlands.

Each of the club officers, with the exception of one who graduated, was reelected to serve a second term as leaders of the thespians. They were: president, Earle Brown; vice presidents, Milton Frank and Bob Romero; secretary, Marna Fleming; treasurer, Kenneth Vance; and parliamentarian, Betty Krambuhl.

Other members for both semesters were: Glenna Finch, Peggy Gardiner, Marjorie Hurst, Joy Herriot, Deanna Booker, Jessie Felthaus, Muriel Shelly, Elaine Jay, Doris Flanagan, Edith Osuyos, Eleanor Wilbur, Eleanor Hedenberg, Mary Alice Van Buren, Kathleen McVegh, Rae Beaman, Gretta Driver, Orien Todd, Warren Chambers, Milton Sartain, Elvin Ress, George Cooley, George Rankin, Harold Ellis, Bernard Harmer, Herman Rossoll, Kenneth Brown, Bill Barkin, Jack Wickham, John Burnett, George Mason, and Clarence Hagendorff.

World Friendship Club

OOVER'S chapter of the State Federation of World Friendship Clubs is called the International Melting Pot—"Imps" for short—and was formed in 1935. Many of the members are in college or at work, for "once a member, always a member." This year the number of active members totals seventy-five. Associate and alumni members bring this total up to 300.

The club this year is making an intensive study of Pan-American problems, since this marks the fiftieth year of the Pan-American Union. The celebration of Pan-American Day at Hoover is sponsored by the group. They present an assembly featuring a distinguished speaker and colorful Spanish and South American music and dances.

Paul Nystrom and Margaret Sheppard were president and vice president, respectively, in the fall semester. During the spring semester the club met in two sections. Geraldine Miller, president; Scotty Williams, vice president and program chairman; Shirley Kritz, secretary-treasurer; and Eleanor Vanderlip, librarian, led the first section, while Telson (Mickey) Woolley, president; Guy Sessions, vice president; Patricia Bartlett, secretary-treasurer; and Bill Cumbie, librarian, headed the second section.

Mrs. Helen Bankerd has sponsored the club since its beginning.

Theta Club

To students of high math ability comes the honor of membership into the Theta Club. Admission to this organization is limited to those who can work the most difficult problems the mathematics department can find.

Sponsored by Harry G. Alway, on April 19 the club had as a highlight of the year's program a trip to the Palomar Observatory. The members during that day acquainted themselves with some of the intricacies of the science of astronomy. The main social event was a party in May at which Harold Back of the math department brought his collection of scientific and mathematical puzzles.

The Theta Club elected as their officers: Leroy Gundred, president; Robert Laabs, vice president, and Nancy Watenpaugh, secretary-treasurer.

The students who were outstanding in the working of problems were: Don Simpson, Nancy Watenpaugh, Joe Ryus, Robert Laabs, Wilbur Schoeller, Wallace Maarsen, and Ellis Myers. The most difficult problem submitted was worked by the president, Leroy Gundred. Other members of the club were: Anita Gillett, Robert Houston, Charles Wilkenson, Jack Klein, Ed Rudisell, Carmen Hora, Ray Jones, Kenneth Brown, Charles Lake, John Mayer, Katherine Wilson, Frank Huennekens, Leslie Brock, John Burnett, Joe Ernst, and Rodes Troutman.

Drill Team

John Je

THE Hoover Drill Team, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Mildred Stanley, has added another successful year to its fine record. To be eligible for the Drill Team, girls must maintain high grades in scholarship and citizenship. They must also be of uniform height and have good figures.

In their smart red and white uniforms, the girls have lent color to many of our football games and rallies. They have also performed at the Elks' Charity Football Game and the Ryan-Tribune Christmas program at Balboa Stadium.

Officers for the fall semester were Virginia Bayless, captain; Virginia Tweedy, Nancy Hamilton, and Anne Burke, lieutenants. The spring officers were Anne Burke, captain; Jean Dobson, Nelda Smith, Alice Holt, and Shirley Thurnell, lieutenants.

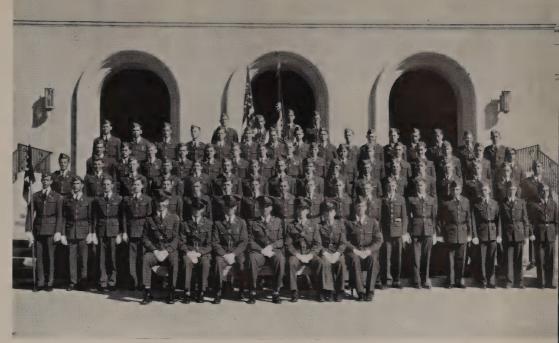

Company "E"

R. O. T. C.

"AM looking forward to another successful competition. Since it is to be held on our field this time, we have that advantage over the other schools, and I figure that we shall come out on top again as before." This was said by Sergeant Edward L. Spellmeyer, commandant and instructor of the Reserve Officers Training Corps of Hoover, in reference to the annual competition to determine the efficiency attained by a unit.

The boys have devoted their class periods to the study of close order and extended order drill and all phases of military science and tactics.

The entire group is looking forward to the completion of their new armory. The added facilities of this building, which will include a class room, and armory proper; a rifle range, and an office for the commanding officer, should enable Hoover's unit to become really outstanding. They now have hopes of attaining Honor School. The boys have been preparing for the Federal inspection to be held in the later part of May, and for the annual competition in which all three of the city high schools participate. Last year Hoover was fortunate enough to win 12 out of 17 places.

Company ''F''

Company G was the outstanding company of the competition, and therefore won the annual cup which is awarded by the Reserve Officers Association of San Diego. Captain Ivan Henry was the commanding officer of Company G.

Our rifle team has been fairly successful this year considering that eleven of the fifteen men on the team were new members. We had two teams with five alternate men. On the first team were Donald Lovelace, John Dannan, Philip Kelgard, Don Benson, and James Foster. The second team included Stephen Farr, Paul Nystrom, Gordon Vinning, George Bailey, and Richard Clark. The alternates were Richard Wood, Jim Drewry, Edward Peery, Roland Desrosiers, and Bill Wilkinson. Next semester's team will find nine returning members.

In the Hearst National Rifle Match, we were fortunate in placing sixteenth and twenty-eighth, respectively, with our teams. In the Ninth Corps Area Inter-Collegiate Match our team placed fifteenth out of sixty-six teams which competed; therefore we were chosen to represent the Corps Area in the National Inter-Collegiate Match. With the score as high as it is, Sergeant Spellmeyer anticipates that the team will be well up, as it was two years ago in the same match.

Company "G"

The initiation for Los Sabres, the officers' club, took place at Bill Olmstead's cabin at Cuyamaca on March 2. Their military ball was given on April 19, with Lt. Col. Guy Hyde in charge. Thirty complimentary bids for this event were presented to various important military people and members of the school board. A highlight of the semester was a picnic at Green Valley Falls. Another activity in which all the officers participated was viewing a very instructive demonstration by the Marines, in which all new weapons now used in the service were fired.

Major Stephen Farr was president of Los Sabres, while Captain Bill Looney and 2nd Lt. Roland Desrosiers were vice president and secretary, respectively. Other members of the Officers' Club were Lt. Col. Guy Hyde, Captains Ted Tanner and Frank Dentremont, 1st Lts. Donald Lovelace, Archie Steele, Edward Peery, and Paul Nystrom; 2nd Lts. John Herron, Fred Wallace, Bill Wilkinson, Anthony De Luce, Jim Parish, and Bill Kearney. Sergeant Spellmeyer is the club adviser.

The drum and bugle corps, now composed of thirty members, was reorganized under Lt. Lovelace.

Dias Cardinales

ARRYING out the theme of Campus Life, the staff of "Dias Cardinales" has tried to make this 1940 edition a record of the year's activities of which we may be proud.

For the first time in the history of "Dias Cardinales" colored pages have been used to add an air of originality and beauty. Natural-color photography reproduced with color plates portraying the dignity of our school and carrying out the campus theme have been employed. We are justly proud of the result, for it is more than satisfactory.

The members of the staff worked under the direction of Leona Charboneau, managing editor, and Katherine Wilson, assistant managing editor. The January editor, Lois Eaton, who was assisted by Frank Storms, planned the first section that included the January seniors. Under the able efficiency of the June co-editors, Betty Krambuhl and Gretta Driver, the divisions devoted to the June class, sports, and school organizations became topics of interest to all of us. Responsible for the art work were Frances Taylor, January art editor, Madeleine Gilbert, June art editor, and Don Forsythe, cartoonist. Roger Armbrister filled the position of business manager, while Virginia Harned, head typist, and her assistants, enabled production of the annual to go on swiftly and smoothly. Mrs. Grace Goodwin acted as literary critic, Miss Agnes Kokanour as faculty adviser, and Miss Anne Grogan as adviser to the art staff.

We of the staff of the 1940 edition of "Dias Cardinales" sincerely hope that this annual will serve as a permanent record of your high school career.

APPRECIATION

We of the "Dias Cardinales" staff wish to express our sincerest gratitude and appreciation to Mr. Hal Brucker of Neyenesch Printers, Inc., for his kindly criticisms and friendly advice, to Mr. and Mrs. Adams of Hartsook's Studio, our official photographer, to the Sunset Engravers, to Mr. W. E. Averett for additional photos, and Babcock Cover Company for covers. Also we are indebted to the entire faculty who cooperated so splendidly in helping to make our annual a success.
